The expectations of Wall Street regarding a favorable bank statement were not disappointed yesterday. While the extravagant figures of the tremely sanguine brokers were not reached, the gain in cash was fully equal to the estimates of The statement shows an increase in specie of $4,578,100, and in legal tender of $774,400, a total gain in cash of $5,352,500. The loans the repayment of sums borrowed by importers in order to bring over the gold from Europe. There was a gain in deposits of $177,300, which was less, however, than some observers had looked for. The result of all the changes was a reduction of $5,308,125 in the deficit in legal reserve, which now is $6,737,675, against a surplus of $9,887,875 in the corresponding week of 1892, and a surplus of $12,767,823 in 1891. The banks now hold in legal money $85,882, 300, against $139,158,200 in 1892, and $113,618,800 in 1891. deposits amount to $370,479,990, against $517. 081,300 in 1892, and $403,405,900 in 1891. The loans are about $33,000,000 in excess of deposits, aggregating $403,607,400, compared with $490,607,700 in 1892, and

The Street is satisfied that the banks are ever better off in cash than their weekly statement of averages shows, and it is afready beginning to talk about the handsome statement which will be issued next Saturday. The demand for currency still kept up, but the increasing supply is depressing to the be per cent and the selling rate at 1 per cent but it was understood that in special instances both these rates were shaded. The price of spot gold commanded 12 per cent premium. Bankers are looking for an increase in the floating supply of currency, as one of the most favorable features of the bank exhibit was the gain of $1.042.000 in circulation. It is estimated that about $5,000,000 gold is on the steamer Campania, which will reach the Assay Office or Sub-Treasury to-morrow, and the steamers due next week will bring in several Banking circles are only amused over the reported order of the Populist Bank Commissioner of Kan-2 per cent of their deposits "until such time as New-York banks resume payment in legal money, Bankers laugh at the Populist notion that the banks here have suspended payment and the order is of little consequence. It is generally believed that the Kansas banks have less than 2 per cent deposit here when the loans they owe to New-York are deducted.

The stock market yesterday was extremely dull. and while prices ruled higher in the morning, there was a disposition to realize profits after the bank statement was issued, and prices ran off slightly The industrials were irregular, American Sugar Refining fluctuating from 78% to 76%, and ending only a fraction better at 771s, while Chicago Gas and General Electric ended a shade lower, the named stock at its lowest price. Western Union Telegraph closed unchanged, and generally the net advances were small in extent. The market, how-ever, compared with the extreme depression of the July panic, shows extensive and important ad-vances. The smallest gain since July has been 3 per cent, and from that figure the improvements run up to 15% per cent. The first of the Anarchists to be arrested for the recent incendiary speeches at meetings of the un employed workingmen in the city was taken into by Detectives Jacobs and Krausch, of the Central Office. Claus Timmerman, twenty-seven years old, was the prisoner, and he was locked up at the Central Office without the knowledge of any of the other Anarchists in the city. Timmerman pleaded not guilty to the charge. He informed the court that he had "only told near the pier was a scene of histle during the morn the people that there would be nothing left to do but what the affidavit said. He merely meant and marched to the Amphitheatre, led by Captains to show them what them what them. to show them what things would come to-famine and hunger." The prisoner was held in default of

The arrest of Timmerman did not cruse much excitement among the East Side Anarchista yesterday. Timmerman has been known also by the name of Zimmerman in the haunts of the more radical Anarchists. It is generally admitted that both names are assumed. Most of the active Anarchists assume names other than their own. Timmerman is credited with being the resident editor of the new Anarchist paper, the "Brandfackel," the chief editor of which is said to be Alexander Berkman, the young Anarchist who tried to kill H. C. Frick a little more than a year ago. A Tribune reporter found Emma Goldman last summer by following the movements of Timmerman. COUNTETTEET DEMOCRATS ANGRY

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 26 (Special).—The failure of Congressman Sperry, of the First District, to be placed at the head of the Committee on Currency and Banking in Speaker Crisp's list was feit as something of a slight by the Democrats of this section of Connecticut. He was next in line of promotion of all the old members of that committee, and as he is a sound, hard money man it was thought that it would be a recognition of the element to place him at the head of the committee. The appointment of Congressman De Forest at the head of the Civil Service Committee does not square things up according to the way Democrats hereabouts look at it. Republicans seem well pleased that Congressman Russell, the only Republican member from the State should be placed on the same committees with his Democratic colleagues from the State. They are personally warm friends, and the relations on the committee will naturally and the relations on the committee will naturally be pleasant.

The death of Bishop McMahon, of the Hartford diocess, leaves the care of the affairs of the Roman Catholic Church in Connecticut under the administration of the Rev. Thomas Hushes, of St. Patrick's Church in this city, for the third time in an interim between the death of a bishop and the appointment of his successor. He has been the vicar-general of the diocese under Bishop McMahon, and at his death was immediately appointed administrator of its affairs by Archbishop Williams of Roston. He has been accredited with aspirations to the bishopric, but at his advanced age his appointment is not considered at all likely. The work of Bishop McMahon was peculiarly successful, as he took upon his shoulders the completion of St. Joseph's Cathedral, which was $60,000 in debt when he was consecrated, and was able to dedicate it last May,

BADLY HURT BY A BROADWAY CABLE CAR.

ONE OF THE EMPLOYES ON THE TRACK WAS THEOWN VIOLENTLY TO THE PAVEMENT -THE WOMAN RUN OVER ON FRIDAY IS DEAD.

There was another accident on the Broadway cable ond yesterday afternoon. Michael McKenna, a track sepairer, in the employ of the railroad company, was at work near Ninth st., a few minutes before 4 p. m. and stepped out of the way of a car going south when the gripman of that car rang the bell to warn him of danger. He did not notice car No. 68 gelus north, which was close upon him, and he stepped in the up track directly in front of it. James Lynch, the gripman of the up car, was ringing the bell at the time. There was no person in the way until McKenna stepped on the track, and then it was in possible to stop the car in time to prevent an accident. McKenna was struck by the forward end of he car and hurled violently to the pivement. He fortunately fell off the track and was not run over. His head was cut and two of his ribs were broken. Lynch stopped the car to see how badly McKenna wa burt. Policeman Sullivan, of the Broadway force arrested Lynch and locked him up after riding with him to the station at the end of the road. the evening of October 4. The ticket which will be nominated at Saratoga has been practically agreed upon. The notorious Isaac H. Maynard will be "vindicated" and put at the head of the ticket for Judge of the Co Appeals, with little or no opposition. Neither Murphy nor Croke, thinks much of the scheme, but at the carnest appeal of Hill and Sheehan they have withdrawn their opposition. Hugh McLaughlin is no better pleased with the Maynard project than Croker and Murphy, but his opposition would prove abortive without their aid.

It is understood that McLaughlin might have named the candidate for Secretary of State, and at one time Thomas E. Pearsail, chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Kings County was looked upon as Secretary Rice's probable suc-cessor. But Mr. McLaughlin prefers legislation at Albany that will suit his personal and political needs to a place on the State ticket. Ellifot Danforth, This is in accord with Mr. Hill's policy, to offer the vacancies on the ticket to men who have been identified with the Cleveland wing of the party. Henedict and Kirk both belong to this class. In further pursuance of Mr. Hill's plan for drawing the factions together, it was said yesterday that Frederic R. Condert will be asked to head the candidates for delegates at-large to the Constitutional Convention. Each State convention will nominate sixteen delegates from the State at large, who will be elected without opposition, as there will be thirty-two delegates-at-large in the Constitutional Convention.

PLACES FOR THREE LOYAL DEMOCRATA COLLECTOR EILBREIN'S MIND IS RELIEVED BY THE RESIGNATION OF ACTIVE REPUBLI-

CANS IN THE CUSTOM HOUSE. Collector Kilbreth yesterday had his way made clear to appoint immediately three statch Democrats to fill places made vacant by the resignations of three stanch Republicans. The best part of it all, from the Collector's point of view, was that the places were made vacant valuaterily and not, as is usually the case, as the result of a suggestion that their resig ations would be acceptable. have thus relieved the Collector's mind are Deputy Collector John H. Gunner, of the Marine Division thoughts to Chairman Murphy as soon as he was up yesterday morning, and Murphy thought well and Deputy Collector Frank Raymond, of the E try Division. All of these men are active Republican and are the leaders of their respective districts. Mr. Gunner is the leader of the Republican organization of the XXIII Assembly District; Mr. Shea, of Gar Hd Assembly District, and Mr. Raymond, of the XXVIIth Assembly District. All of these mer were appointed by Collector Erhardt soon after he took charge of the Custom House. When the new Collector took charge of the office, he asked all of the officials there to remain in the Government service at least until he had learned more about the service. These three officials, low ever, thought that maximuch as a campaign was about to open 17 which they would take active part, they to open 13 which facy would take active part, they could not, in justice to themselves as Republican and as political opponents to the Collector, remain in the Custom House. The three deputies held a consultation on Friday night and determined to take the course which they did. Consequently, yesterlay each man sent to the Cilector a resignation, to take nect on the appointment and qualification of his successor. All of the men will start away on their annual vacations early next week.

ALMOST A RIOT IN A SYNAGOGUE.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 26,-Three obstreperous nembers of the Congregation Bnai Jacob, in Temple st., broke up services in that house of worship this morning. These people, Joseph Levine, Joseph Softe and Henry Brody do not admire their rabbl, the Rev. Israel Sachs, and have used every effort to cause his removal from this field. This morning the three men attended services, and in various ways inter fered with the ceremonies. They finally invaded the sacred precincts in which the rabbi was preaching met last evening and opened the bids for the and attempted to drug him away. The congregation, about 100 in number, sprang to their pastor's relief and a fierce struggle resulted. It required the energetic efforts of a dozen cool heads to quell quite a promising riot. Warrants have been Issued for the three disturbers.

JERSEY CITY.

It was reported in Jersey City yesterday that Fire Commissioners Kern and Donnelly, the Demo-cratic members of the board, intend to usurp the power to convert the department into a full-paid in-stitution by wiping out the "buffalo" system and appointing sixty new men and eighteen commandants. They both denied the story when asked about it yesterday. They could not pay the men, even if they were appointed, because the board is entirely dependent upon the Finance Board. As the budget for the year ending December 1, 1894, has already been fixed, no money can now be obtained for any municipal purposes other than those specified until after that date. It has been suggested that the men might do duty and wait until 1805 for their pay, but that is not the Democratic fashion in Jersey City. The plan of getting the money first and dong the work afterward has the preference One of the favorite bathing-places of the boys of upper Jersey City and North Hudson is Penn Horn reek, which empties into the Hackensack River. It is particularly dangerous at obb tide, as it empties itself in a very short time. On Friday afternoon a dozen boys from the Heights and ad-Jacent towns went to the creek to swim. Three yesterday were allowed to land by Collector Kil-breth The Collector spent over an hour cross-were drowned. Two of them lived in Jersey City-Dominic Hindes, nine years old, of No. 33 Hicks-st., bonnite Hindes, line years old, of No. 23 Hicks-and James McNally, ten years old, of No. 23 Hicks-st. The other lad was about ten years old, but neither his name nor address is known. The bodies of McNally and Hindes were found in the Hackensack yesterday.

The Board of Finance of Jersey City has increased the money appropriated for repairing the public schools from $20,000 to $23,000. It has also appropriated $15,000 for repairing sewers, and $10,000 for repairing firehouses.

NEWARK.

Mrs. Clara Thornton, an aged widow who had lived a solitary life for several years at Lyons Farms, and was a woman of good family and fine education, died on Friday in the rickety shanty which she occupied. The body was taken charge of by the poormaster of Clinton Township. Mrs. Thornton belonged to a well-known New-York family. Her husband was an author of some repute, and in their early life the couple lived in good circumstances. Mrs. Thornton was an accomplished linguist and translator, and had skill as a musician and painter. She had published prose and poetical compositions and contributed York and Boston newspapers. Her husband lost his sight, and soon afterward the couple moved to Lyons Farms, where they bought a homestead, When a railroad was run through the place part of the property was condemned and taken, much to their disgust. Since then Mrs. Thornton, leading her blind husband by the hand, made almost daily visits to newspapers and lawyers' offices in Newark to complain that they had been wronged. The house in which they lived went to ruin through neglect, and their cattle were nearly starved, the neighbors having to feed them. Since her husband died, four years ago, Mrs. Thornton had seldom been seen. Her maiden name was Davenport. About $75 in cash was found in the house after her death. The Republican County Committee will revise the list of election officers, as there was much dissatisfaction with the acts of some of these officers in the last election.

A two days' celebration in memory of General Philip Kearny will be held at the Shooting Park on August 31. Invitations to attend it have been adopted by Generals Sickles, Slocum, Carr, Mo-Mahon and Butterfield. There will be a parade of veterans of "Phil" Kearny's old command.

NEW-BRUNSWICK

The Committee on Sewerage of the City Council construction of a sewer in bliver-st. Bids were re-ceived from New-York and Philadelphia firms, but as they exceeded the appropriation no action was taken by the committee. It is probable the city will do the work.

This is a jubilee year for Macmillan & Co., the anniversary, but to accommodate their growing bush ness the New-York house this month moves from its old quarters at No. 112 Fourth-ave, to a handsome new fire proof, six-story building at No. 66 Fifth-ave. This well-known publishing house, which was founded by Daniel Macmillan, established its American branch in New-York in 1860, when George E. Breit came here to assume the management. The venture was successful from the start under Mr. Breit who conthrued at the heat of the branch until his death in 1890, when the New-York house was made an in-
